PRESSURE TESTING

Watertightness tests for sewers according to EN 1610 standards, applying an air-based method to detect defects in pipes.

Types of equipment for carrying out pressure tests, in accordance with the needs of customers:

TL 110 case - an accessory for the RJ 106 control unit. Pressure control – manual.

TL 111 case – enables work independent of control units. Comes with a PC and software. Pressure control – manual.

TL 114 case – enables work independent of control units. Comes with a PC and software. Pressure and venting controls are fully automatic.

ZIKMUND is able to provide compressors and hoses that meet the exact specifications of users.